

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 2018

EVENT:

The Seattle Art Museum presents:
The 2018 Washington State High School Photography exhibit

EXHIBIT DATES:

November 28th - January 2nd 2018 - Free Admission

LOCATION:

Seattle Art Museum
Community Corridor on the 1st floor
1300 First Avenue
Seattle, WA 98101
www.seattleartmuseum.org

Final public exhibit of the 2018 Washington State High School Photography Competition (WSHSPC). See the exhibit of thirty-three photographs selected from nearly four thousand entries. Our 2018 jurists were Mel Curtis, Claire Garoutte and Bruce Hudson. Matting and framing provided by Wallingford Frame Central. Free admission to visit this area of SAM. There will be no reception for this event.

The Washington State High School Photography Competition (WSHSPC) is the collaborative effort of instructors, students and business partners who help fund the effort. Visit www.kenmorecamera/topic/wshspc-2018 to view this exhibit on-line.

For more information contact:

Kelly Atkinson
Executive Director WSHSPC
kellyatkinsonphotography@gmail.com